will be reopened on THURSDAY, September 18. THE COLLEGIATE SCHOOL,

THE COLLEGIATE SCHOOL, No. 71 WEST FOURTEENTH STREET, Corner of Sixth Avenue,
Now in its forty-first year, has reopened with every advantage for the education of youth, in both the elementary and higher branches, in ancient and modern languages, book-keeping, and all ther departments of a complete school course. To meet urgent demands for increased accommodations, the school-building has been considerably enlarged during the Summer vacation. The Rector is assisted by twelve experienced teachers, and can thus insure to each scholar a due share of individual attention. Pupils are received at all ages, and thoroughly prepared for college or business

are received at all ages, and thoroughly prepared for college or business.

Many prominent parties whose sons have attended this Institution have testified in strong terms to their satisfaction with the course of Instruction pursued. The Rev. Dr. Ferris, Chancellor of the University, writes: "I take pleasure in renewing my testimony in behalf of Mr. G. P. Quackenbos as an instruction of youth. My son was with him for several years, and made most gralifying rogress." The Rev. Dr. Spencer says: "The progress of my son under your charge was rapid and thorough in the various branches of Classical and English training; and I cannot hesitate to recommend your Institute to all who desire sound education for their children." The Rev. Charles K. Imbrie of Jercey City says. "For some time past I have had two sons under the care of G. P. Quackenbos, esq. It gives me great pleasure to express my satisfaction with the progress they have made, and the confidence which I feel in his system of instruction. In my opinion, he unites in an eminent degree the qualities necessary for a successful teacher." Judge Fink of Jercey Gity writes: "Your mode of teaching is peculiarly happy, thorough, and efficient; and I cannot but express to you the great satisfaction I feel in my our progress, both in English and the Classics." Robert Hoe, esq. concludes his letter thus: "Allow me to state that your shillity, text, and judgment in your profession, and the elevated moral character of your instruction, I consider unsurpassed."

As new classes are now forming for beginners in Latin, Greek, French, Spanish, German, and Bookkeeping, the present time is most favorable for entrance.

G. P. QUACKENBOS, A. M., RECTOR.

THE MISSES PALACHE'S FRENCH and ENGLISH BOARDING and DAY-SCHOOL for young Ladies, No. 183 West 28th st., will REOPEN on MONDAY, 10th September.

WALNUT-HILL SCHOOL, GENEVA, N.Y.
The new year of the Rev. Dr REED'S BOARDING SCHOOL for HOVS is now opening. The situation of this school at a distance from the city, yet easily reached in thirseen hours, the extent and beauty of the school-grounds, and the thoroughness and completeness of the instruction, present special claims to the notice of parents, who wish to separate their boys from the influence of a large town. The school unites with wellknown provision for literary, scientific, and religious education, all necessary and fitting discipline for physical development and training. There will be a short recess at the Christmas Holidays, but no other vacation till the close of the year in July next.

It is preferred that pupils, when they enter the school, should not be over 14 years of age. Circulars will be sent to those who desire further information. The charge for school year of forty
